MARGARET K. RUBBERT BRIDE OF R. HEGLIE

Grace Lutheran Church, Fargo, was the scene of a pretty holiday wedding when Miss Margaret K. Rubbert, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Rubbert of 701 S. Drive, Fargo, became the bride of Lieut. Roger A. Heglie of the USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Heglie of 1314 N. 9th St., Fargo, on Dec. 20th, at 4 o'clock PM.

The bride's father, Rev. F. A. Rubbert officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. Rev. Rubbert was former pastor of the First English Lutheran Church at Fairmount and St. John's Lutheran Church at Tyler for over 11 years.

The church was beautifully decorated with white flocked Christmas trees on each side of the altar with blue bulbs and candelabra on the altar. Single candelabara and white flocked boughs decorated with balls and white pine cones decorated the aisle. The altar was banked with white boughs.

The organist, Don Firnhaber of Fargo, played the following selections for the Processional "Aria in D," "Jesu, Joy of Mans Desiring" and the Recessional was "Fugue & Prelude in C. Major." He also accompanied the soloist, Robert Fiechtner of Fargo, who sang "Song of Ruth" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her brother, Armin Rubbert of Aberdeen, WA. She wore a white floor length gown of velvet with a Chapel train and it was styled with a fitted bodice, full skirt, portrait neckline with applique design. Her bridal veil of silk illusion was held in place by a pearl Swedish crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses with sprigs of blue Lily of the Valley. The bride's gifts from the bridegroom were cultured pearl earrings and a Mink capelet.

The bride's attendants were her classmates from the St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing. The Matron of Honor was Mrs. Duane Olson of Fort Ranson, ND. The Maid of Honor was Miss Gladys Chelgren of Denver, CO., and the bridesmaid was Miss Ellen Dahl of Moorhead, MN. Their identical sheath dresses were of blue velveteen with blue silk organza overskirts fashioned with cumberbunds and velveteen bows at the back. They wore matching headbands with blue accessories and carried semi-cascade bouquets of white roses, white and blue feathered carnations and sprigs of holly. They wore pearl and aurora borealis earrings and white gloves, gifts of the bride.

The bestman was Jerome Hendrickson of Dubuque, IA., fraternity brother at NDAC, of the bridegroom. Groomsmen were the bride's brother, Dr. Duane Rubbert of Des Moines, IA., and Dale Hegreberg of Minot, fraternity brother of the groom. Ushers were Armin Rubbert, brother of the bride, Ralph Anderson, Fargo, brother-in-law of the groom, and Ronald Nellerhoe, of Christine, ND., cousin of the groom. The groom, ushers and attendants wore midnight blue dinner jackets and trousers with cummerbunds, bow ties. They wore white carnation boutonnieres with the exception of the groom who had a white rose.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rubbert wore a white brocaded dress with black & white accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Heglie, wore a blue lace dress with black and white accessories. They each had a lovely corsage of red roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors given by the parents with 500 guests in attendance. The reception table was centered with a five tiered wedding cake decorated with white rosebuds and trim, topped with a bouquet of red roses with blue and white net ribbon. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Orville Herschlip, Upham, ND., cousin of the bride, and Mrs. George Risan, Fargo, aunt of the groom. The groom's cake was served by Miss Brenda Heglie, 9 year old sister of the groom. Pouring were Mrs. Melvin Kaeding, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Clayton Fomess, Fargo, aunt of the groom. Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Fargo, sister of the groom, had charge of the guest book. Presiding at the gift table were: Mary Pfau, Upham, cousin of the bride, Dawn Forness, Fargo, cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Gary Thompson, Fairmount, friend of the bride. Friends assisted in the kitchen with the serving.

A buffet supper was served at the home of the bride's parents following the reception for relatives and classmates.

The bride is a graduate of Central High School at Fargo, and the St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing at Fargo. She was employed as a Registered Nurse at the St. Luke's Hospital. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Comstock High School, Comstock, MN., and North Dakota State College at Fargo. He was formerly employed by the NW Bell Telephone Co., and is now a Lieutenant in the USAF stationed at Cape Cod, MA.

For going away the bride wore a black sheath with white trim, with black and white accessories and wearing her mink caplet, gift of the bridegroom. They will make their home, after the first of the New Year, at the Otis Air Force Base at Cape Cod, MA.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Kramer, Upham, Minot, Wahpeton, Fairmount, Christine, Walcott, Tyler, Great Bend, Cuba, Fort Ranson, Hillsboro, Valley City, ND., Gary, Wolverton, Comstock, Sabin, MN.; Rosholt, SD.; Denver, CO.; Dubuque, IA.; Des Moines, IA.; and Washington, DC.

WILLIAM SCHUETT

Mr. William Schuett passed away in Long Beach, CA., on Dec. 26th, at the age of 73 years. He was taken ill on Christmas Day, having suffered a stroke from which he never recovered. He and his wife had been in Long Beach for about 6 weeks, having left Wiboux, MT., on Nov. 1st, to spend the winter months there, as has been their custom for the past 15 years.

His remains, accompanied by his wife and nephew, George Schuett, Jr., arrived at Wiboux Wednesday evening and the funeral services were conducted from the Christian Fundamental Church at 2 PM., New Year's Day. The Crescent Funeral Home had charge of the arrangements. Interment was in the Wiboux Cemetery, with the Elks of Glendive having charge of the services at the grave.

Bill Schuett went to Wiboux in 1905, as agent and operator for the Northern Pacific Railroad, which post he held for a number of years. He then went into the cattle business with his partner, Mr. W. E. Stockstill. Some of the finest cattle in the country were raised by these gentlemen. During the drought years, his business was dissolved and Mr. Schuett then went into the automobile and machinery business. This he operated for 25 years. In 1945, due to poor health, he sold out to Mr. W. Hammond of Carlyle. Bill was prominent in Democratic circles of Wiboux County and a charter member of the Elks Lodge of Glendive. He served as alderman of the city council for a number of years and also on the school board.

Survives include his wife, Brownie, a brother, George Schuett of Hankinson, one sister Mrs. John Ostline of Chicago; five nephews, George Schuett, Jr., of Long Beach, Warren Schuett of Wahpeton, Stanley Schuett of Baltimore, MD., Gene Seubert of Browning, MT., and Bob Seubert of Spokane, WA., and one niece, Mrs. W. Luke of Indianapolis, IN.

KUEMPER FUNERAL WILL BE HELD HERE FRIDAY

Funeral services for S-Sgt. Garrit Kuemper, 30, Air Force ROTC instructor at the Illinois University at Urbana, will be held from the Wipperman Funeral Home at 10 AM Friday. Rev. Father L. Studzinski will officiate. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery here.

The body of Sgt. Kuemper was found Sunday in a motel hours after he had picked up his wife at a mental hospital where she had been a voluntary patient, so she could spend her birthday with him.

His wife, Beverly Ann, 27, was apprehended Wednesday at Mountain Grove, MO., after a truck driver, who had given her a ride, became suspicious and reported to authorities. She admitted she had beaten her husband to death with a hammer, saying, "I didn't know what I was doing."

When Mrs. Kuemper vanished Sunday, she left behind a note saying she intended to drown herself in the Illinois river. However, Kuemper's car was found abandoned several hours later in a snowdrift near Collinsville, 85 miles south of Springfield, and far from the river. John Stuper, state police major, obtained a murder warrant for Mrs. Kuemper after police found the car.

The couple's 22 month old daughter lives with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Osborne. Sgt. Kuemper attended St. Francis Academy in Hankinson and joined the Army Air Force branch of the service. He had been an ROTC instructor for several months at the Illinois Univ. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kuemper; sisters, Mrs. Arnold Schnell, Hankinson and Mrs. Lucille Thurman, Richland, WA.; two brothers, Elmer of Minneapolis and Vernon of Fergus Falls, MN. Another brother, Bernard, was killed in a gravel pit accident about two or three years ago.

The Hankinson American Legion Post will furnish the honor guard for the last rites Friday. Pallbearers will be William Coppin, Wilbur Gavel, Jerome Mauer, William Campbell, Jr., George Krump and Gregory Bauer, Jr.

The Wipperman Funeral Home in Hankinson had charge of arrangements.

TWO MEN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Two men were instantly killed, a baby was still born, a child had his skull fractured, two young women had many bones broken, and the wives of the two men killed suffered multiple bruises as the result of a crash west of Wahpeton early Friday afternoon. The two men who lost their lives were enroute to Arizona for a winter vacation. The accident occurred at the junction of Highways 81 and 13 near Dwight.

Dead are Harry Dauer, 33, and Melvin Liszt, 44, both of Grand Forks. Severly injured is Mrs. Gary Thompson, 23, of St. Paul, the former Joann Daman, of Fairmount and her sister-in-law, Miss Carol Thompson of Rosholt. Her son, 11 month old Gary, suffered a skull fracture, some bruises and lacerations.

Mrs. Liszt and Mrs. Dauer suffered multiple lacerations and bruises, mostly to the face. They were taken to Fargo after being cared for at the St. Francis Hospital in Breckenridge.

The bodies of the two men were taken to St. Paul. Mrs. Thompson, who lost her baby, suffered a fractured left arm, her right ankle is swollen and believed broken but is not yet set. Her pelvic bone is broken in two places and her hip broken. She suffered internal injuries, also. Miss Thompson had many bruises about the face and multiple fractures of the jaw.

The two women and little boy were enroute from the Damon farm near Fairmount to Barney to visit friends.

The car, driven by Dauer, was going south on 81. Witnesses to the crash told highway patrolmen that the Dauer vehicle did not stop at the stop sign and was struck broadside by the Daman Chevrolet, which was driven by Mrs. Thompson. Both cars went into the ditch on the south side.

AUTO CRASH VICTIM'S RITES to be HELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Dr. C. V. Bateman, Richland County Coroner (in picture shown) with the aid of a flashlight, is shown examining the body of Gary Navratil who was crushed to death when the car in which he was riding rolled over on him after he was thrown out. On the extreme left is Max Wipperman, Jr., Hankinson.....The car was tipped back on its wheels before Dr. Bateman arrived. The one car accident occurred on Richland County Highway No. 3 southwest of Hankinson early Sunday morning.

+ + + + +

Funeral services for Gary Navratil, 15, of New Effington, SD., an auto accident victim will be held at 2 PM, Friday, August 25th, at Bethany Lutheran Church, New Effington. Interment will be in the Bohemian Cemetery, north of that village. Rev. R. Huglen will officiate.

Navratil was killed when the car in which he was riding skidded on a curve on Co. Road No. 3., seven miles west and seven miles south of Hankinson and overturned, pinning the boy beneath the machine.

Driver of the car, authorities said, was Myron Kluge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kluge whose post office address is New Effington but who farms in North Dakota southwest of Hankinson. Another passenger in the car was Russell McKee of Rosholt, who was treated at St. Gerard's Hospital and later released.

The accident occurred at 12:40 Sunday morning as the car was within a few hundred feet of the driver's home. The young driver apparently lost control of the car going around a curve as he was traveling north on the county road. The vehicle rolled one and a half times into the right ditch. McKee and Kluge were thrown clear as the car rolled. Navratil was also thrown out on the left side but the car landed on top of him.

The 1954 Chevrolet was almost totally wrecked, the glass in the car being broken, the top and left side severely damaged.

Investigating the accident were state highway patrolmen, Earl Dosch and Ronald Evenson. Dr. C. V. Bateman, county coroner, also was called and the Wipperman ambulance, from Hankinson, was likewise summoned.

Gary Navratil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Navratil of New Effington, was born at Hankinson on July 8th, 1946. He attended the rural school in that area and later at New Effington.

He is survived by his parents, a sister, Joyce (Mrs. William Winefeldt, Minneapolis) a brother, Roger, in the armed services in Japan and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyer, Sauk Center, MN., and Mrs. Leopold Navratil, New Effington.

The Wipperman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements. The death of Navratil brings to four the number of fatalities on Richland County highways this year.

MEAD KILLED AS TRUCK HITS FREIGHT TRAIN

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Methodist Church in Fairmount for Chester A. Mead, 56, who met instant death Saturday at about 12:30 PM., when his pickup truck collided with a Soo Line freight train on the northeast outskirts of Fairmount. The Rev. Charles Bryan, pastor of the church, officiated at the last rites.

Mead was traveling north on the highway known as "Old 81" now a county road, when he hit the left front of the Soo engine. It struck the half ton Chevrolet pickup truck, dragging it over 100 feet down the track before it came to a stop, resting on its top on the south side of the main track. The Soo freight was westbound.

Mead was pinned in the cab of the vehicle and died of chest injuries. Investigating the crash were highway patrolmen Earl Dosch, Ron Evenson and County Coroner, Dr. C. V. Bateman of Wahpeton.

According to Engineer L. E. Carlson of Enderlin, authorities were told the trainmen had seen the truck approaching from a distance and were whistling when the vehicle was struck on the crossing. The truck slid onto the crossing in front of the engine with brakes applied, the engineer told the highway patrolmen. The train engine was not damaged.

Mead lives just half a mile north of the crossing where the accident occurred and was on his way home. Mead leaves his wife and three daughters, Mavis, Mrs. Clayton Oberle, Bristol, SD., Marlys, Mrs. Lloyd Krause, Buena Park, CA., and Jacquelyn, Mrs. Kenneth Kutzer, Fairmount.

He also leaves a brother, Orville, of Minneapolis and the following sisters: Mrs. Albert Schroeder, Fairmount; Mrs. Minar Miller, White Rock, SD., Mrs. Clifford Wetherbee, Fergus Falls, MN.; Mrs. I. E. LeDuc, Willmar, MN.; Mrs. Lloyd Lien, Fairmount; Mrs. Roxy Frankl, St. Paul; and Mrs. Glenn Willis, Fairmount.
